MARRIED BEST MAN.

Guests invited to attend the wedding in Wheeling, W. Va., of Miss Nora Humphrey, daughter of D. R. Humphrey, a business man of Flushing, Ohio, to Walter Woodward, of Columbus, Ohio, were surprised on their arrival at the scene of the wedding festivities to discover that Miss Humphrey had changed her mind about the man she wanted for a husband, and instead of marrying Woodward, was united in marriage to Charles Llewelyn, who was to have been best man.

Some time ago Woodward became engaged to Miss Humphrey and then was compelled to leave Flushing. Mr. Llewelyn commenced calling on the young lady and it was the general impression that he did so as the friend of Woodward. Miss Humphrey and Woodward decided to get married and the invitations had been sent out.

Thursday night when the guests had assembled in the parlors of the Woodward home Rev. W. G. Todd, the officiating minister, announced that there had been a change in the wedding arrangements. He said Miss Humphrey and Mr. Woodward had talked over the matter, and as Miss Humphrey was of the opinion that she loved Llewellyn best, Mr. Woodward had consented to act as best man, while Llewelyn would be the groom.

FALLING OFF IN RECEIPTS.

The losses incident to the prohibition wave are causing deficits to pile up so rapidly at the Treasury Department that a serious deficit is being created in the government resources, and Congress, it is said, will have to take up the matter at the coming session and cover the loss from some other source. It is said that indications point to a deficit of $2,000,000 for October, and more will follow as the prohibition movement spreads.

The loss in revenues last month, Treasury figures show, on spirituous liquors alone, was $1,506,819. The total since July has been $5,542,958, and figures so far received for October show that the loss will be $2,000,000 or more. The loss on beers and other fermented liquors in September amounted to $1,796,914,27, and this loss is also increasing.

There are some other curious correlated losses given in the Treasury figures. For instance, thousands of men must have quit playing cards, because the government revenue loss on playing cards was $9,327,70. As the tax on cards is only 5 cents a pack, the figures show that about 25,000 fewer packs have been purchased.

Also, there is a loss of $46,886,90 on oleo margarine, $7,280 on adulterated butter, and 9,664,07 on "renovated" butter, used in free lunch. The loss of cigar taxes totals $619,194,92.

Do not let anyone tell you that something else is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because there isn't anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

COMET VISIBLE.

M. Camille Flammarion, the astronomer, announces that persons with good sight can now see the Morehouse comet with the naked eye if they know exactly where to look for it. Its position is between the constellations of the Swan and the Lyre.

The nucleus of the comet has more than 36 times the diameter of the earth, and the tail extends for 43,000,000 kilometres. It is traveling at the rate of 150,000 kilometres (93,000) miles an hour. The nucleus looks like an agglomeration of small stones merged in an ocean of gas. The tail is formed of dust and gas. This wandering life of comets traveling obliquely through space and cutting through the orbits of planets in every direction is not without peril. More than one has met with destruction, and such is probably the final destiny of all comets. There is no fear, however, of this comet coming into collision with our planet. It is more than 93,000,000 miles from the earth, and is now beginning to increase that distance. It will be in perihelion December 25, and will pass round the sun at a distance of 141,000,000 kilometers. It will then speed away into the depths of infinite night.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miles, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Company and Richard Gibson.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 24, 1908.

A WEEK ago Mr. Nathan Straus, chairmen of the Bryan and Kern Business Men's League of New York, charged Republican National Treasurer Sheldon with going into Wall street and levying $500 on each banker and broker. Mr. Sheldon's indignation was aroused and he vehemently denied the soft impeachment saying it was absurd to assert he had power to "levy" any sum, but he had sent out a request to one thousand and more persons to contribute $50 each. Mr. Sheldon's denial did not phaze Mr. Straus, as he was familiar with the facts, and he replied with fervid language that Mr. Sheldon "lied and knew he lied when he asserted that these men had not been assessed $500 each." Four years ago when Judge Parker said Mr. Cortelyou had gone into Wall street and demanded a quarter of a million dollars; Mr. Roosevelt, the "Jim the penman of the White House," retorted in words to the effect that Judge Parker would not recognize the truth if he met it. Well, Judge Parker has been vindicated, although it was several years before the facts leaked out. Mr. Straus had only a few days to wait to have his statement verified. It is publicly stated at republican headquarters that money is coming in to give a whirlwind finish to Mr. Taft's campaign. In the great financial center the word has been passed from magnate to magnate that Treasurer Sheldon's coffers are now well filled, and that New York state is positively safe for Taft.

The following press dispatch from New York was published a few days ago:

Hitchcock's committee has the money and the republican party will win, all the financiers are now asserting. Implicit faith is felt here, as everybody knows, in the potency of money. Wall street responded to the call, somewhat reluctantly, it is true, and now all danger is past, it is claimed, in the empire state. The bounding west may cut the Roosevelt and McKinley majorities of four and eight years ago, but the empire state is safe, and you cannot convince one New Yorker in a thousand that Mr. Bryan can possibly reach the presidency without New York state. How much money has been raised, nobody knows, but the word is out that the sum is sufficient for all practical purposes.

A "sum sufficient for all practical purposes!" which means "corruption of the electorate." There is little doubt that the moneyed men of this country, north, south, east and west, have pooled their interests and are doing all they can to elect the republican ticket. The wisdom of this may be questioned, for their poorer neighbors have good sense, and therefore know that the money with which the rich buy elections does not fall from the clouds, and this is enough to make them think. One would not be trifling with the truth in saying that in every national election from 1884 to the present day money has played a much greater part than has been good for the morals, as well as the future of the country. Well, these customs will continue until something serious happens. But the plutocrats ridicule all such admonitions, claiming they consider Mr. Sheldon's "levy" not a demand but only "a gentleman's agreement" to pony up to the extent of $500 each in order to save the country, and "we are the country," they proclaim.

"MOLLYCODDLES," or candy suckers, a popular form of candy on a stick, are being investigated by the Lynn, Mass., Board of Health. Lynn had an epidemic of diphtheria and sore mouths, and physicians assert that "Mollycoddles" are largely responsible. The "Mollycoddle" is so formed that it cannot be taken into the mouth and chewed, but must be held in the hand and sucked. While no fault is found with the candy itself, the juvenille practice of passing it around for promiscuous sucking is said to assist in the spread of contagious disease. Sucking "Mollycoddles" has become so popular that even grown ups have the habit and consume the new confection on the street. Many "Mollycoddles" are sold in Alexandria to the younger generation.

SECRETARY ROOT, after a second conference with the president yesterday, at which it was decided to send the cabinet out on an election tour for Mr. Taft, was asked if the decision to send him to Ohio in behalf of Taft didn't indicate that the State was in danger. "It indicates that the situation is very mixed," Mr. Root replied. This is more than significant.

THE San Francisco Call states that a report affecting the transport service on that coast has been made to the War Department and that some startling disclosures may be expected when the report is made public. It seems almost impossible for the government to engage in any undertaking without a scandal ensuing.

IT APPEARS that at last the farmers of the country are becoming convinced that Providence has more to do in sending them good crops than government tax rates. This change of mind is the cause of great anxiety in the republican camp.

THE entire cabinet, as stated yesterday, has been conscripted in the Taft cause, and during the next few days they will take the stump and work in season and out of season to place their favorite in the White House Huge automobiles half-covered with white cotton on which appeared earnest appeals to officeholders to go home and vote were gliding between the departments in Washington yesterday. That the republicans are passing through a trying ordeal is evident, and their anxiety is increasing as election day draws near.

TRAINED MEN of both parties quietly admit that 25 per cent of the voters of the country are on the fence at this late day and they believe this enormous vote can be turned one way or the other within the last few days of the campaign. It is said that never has there been such a vacillation of mind among voters as at present. To buy this vote is the reason for the collection of the big republican campaign fund.

From Washington.

Washington, Oct. 24.

Smilingly side stepping the query as to whether the speaker's bureau of the republican national committee had been temporarily transferred to the White House, Representative Wm. S. Bennett, of New York, who recently succeeded T. C. Dupont, of Delaware, as chief of that bureau, held a lengthy conference with the president today. He had hurried here in respone to a telephonic request to take up with the president certain urgent matters in connection with the closing days of the campaign. Inquiries at the White House today, with reference to the report that the president would make a speech next Saturday night before the Marquette Club of Chicago, were met with evasive replies. It is believed that the president is holding himself in readiness to make several speeches before the close of the campaign, should he feel that conditions, as they develop, require it. Among the suggestions received by the president, is one pointing out the great advantages of a stumping trip to Chicago. Such a trip would cover three doubtful states, reach great industrial, railroad and mining sections, and traverse in Pennsylvania several communities in which fights are being made against the republican congressional ticket. It was pointed out that this schedule would give the president rear end speeches at Baltimore and Harrisburg; at Altoona, at Wilmerding, and at Pittsburg. In Ohio, the railroad centers of Alliance and Mansfield, the industrial center of Canton; the Massillon coal region and the Lima oil fields would be traversed. It is understood that extra efforts are being made to secure the labor vote at Gary, Ind., the new steel town, where Judge Taft, Vice President Fairbanks and others are scheduled to speak tonight, and should he make the trip, the president would probably stop there for a few remarks. According to Bennet's statement, the oratorical pyrotechnics to be let loose next week will set aflame the heavens of Ohio, Indiana and New York, with sidelights in West Virginia, Kentucky and Connecticut. All the orators that can be handled have been hurried to Ohio. Indiana will also be gridironed with speakers. From Monday morning until the day before election the thunder of oratory will continue in New York. Representative Bennet stated that he felt qualified to state that President Roosevelt would not take the stump in this campaign.

The State Department was advised by cable this afternoon of the suicide by shooting this morning of Silas C. McFarland, consul general at large and inspector of consulates for Europe, on a train between Hamburg and Berlin.

Miss Katharine Harley, of Fall River, Mass., won the national golf championship for women, at the Chevy Chase links today, in the final round of the week's tournament, playing against Mrs. T. H. Polhemus, of Brooklyn, by a score of six up and five to play.

Reports from Chicago state that there is a reduction in meat prices, that pork and other meats have dropped from 1 cent to 1½ cents a pound wholesale. For the last two weeks there has been a concerted effort on the part of packers to boost meat prices. The sudden decline was brought about by the persistent refusal of consumers to pay advance prices.

A remarkable combat between a large eagle and a shark was witnessed by Capt. Henderson and crew of the steamer Tangier on the Chesapeake bay Thursday afternoon. When coming out of Occohannock creek they saw the eagle dive and come to the surface with a shark. Then followed a fierce struggle. The shark pulled the eagle under the water until it was almost exhausted. The fish was killed and floated down on the water. Members of the steamer's crew put off in a small boat and secured the eagle, although it clawed them repeatedly, and its mate, hovering close by, tried to attack them.

REPUBLICANS WORRIED.

Democratic State Chairman Dimeling is at state headquarters to remain all week and take up the work of the campaign which is progressing very favorably. State Secretary P. Gray Meek went to Harrisburg last evening and with his force was very busy today sending out documents and arranging for meetings and speakers. Asked what he thought of the sudden activity of the republican machine bosses in preparing for mass meetings and drafting their best speakers for the stump, Secretary Meek smiled and said: "I see they are getting active, which is a sure indication that they are scared. And they have every reason to be scared for that big majority given Roosevelt in this state will be very materially cut down in November. They talk of Taft having 200,000 majority in this state. If they get 50,000 majority for their national ticket they will be lucky. I am not talking as a boast. Our reports every day are better and better. The old conservatives who would have nothing to do with Bryan when he ran for president before are now under the banner and fighting for him. It is no wonder that the republican machinists are getting scared. They remember how easy it was for Berry to be elected state treasurer and they do not forget that they elected Governor Stuart by less than 75,000 and they are beginning to sit up and do some thinking, at the same time they are getting out to hustle. But it is too late for them to get busy now. Their big majority will not come to them again, and they are going to lose congressman, state senators and members of assembly, and they know it. Of course they may have a big cash balance in their treasury that may help them."—[Star (independent)-Harrisburg, Pa.

This seems somewhat remarkable when the fact is considered that Roosevelt carried Pennsylvania in 1904 by at least 500,000 pluralitv.

After Night Riders.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Frazier Light Guards and Forest Rifles, comprising 100 men, under Maj. Horton, left this morning for Obelon, and will march through to Samsburg, 18 miles, the heart of the "night rider" district. Governor Patterson's life has been threatened, but he stays at Walnut Log investigating. T. C. Ward, keeper of the hotel where Rankin and Judge Taylor were stopping, is under arrest as the result of information gleaned from ten suspects, who were released. It is reported that Ed. Powell, who was captured by night riders and forced to accompany them to the hotel, is wanted on orders of Governor Patterson, but he has not been found.

Today's Telegraphic News

Anti-Merger Suit.

Boston, Oct. 24.—An apparently unimportant motion made by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad yesterday in the government anti-merger suit turns out to be one of extreme moment, since it questions the constitutionality of the Sherman anti-trust law. This is the first time the constitutionality of the law has been doubted in open court, and if the U. S. Circuit Court goes into this matter in passing on the motion its decision will be one of the most important in the annals of law. The railroad's motion merely objects to the request of Attorney General Bonaparte that the merger cases be argued before three circuit judges. The argument set up by the defence is that Congress without constitutional rights attempts to set up a special tribunal not properly established or ordained by the constitution as a court of the land to try a suit properly brought and pending within the jurisdiction of a United States court. The objections are upon the ground that such three judges, established for a hearing of this case, will not be an inferior court ordained and established by Congress of the United States within the meaning the constitution and especially within the meaning of section 1, article three.

Preparing to Sail for Amoy.

Yokohama, Oct. 24.—The officers and men of the American fleet busied themselves today with preparations for weighing anchor early tomorrow for the cruise to Amoy, China.

Though the fleet was scheduled to sail in a few hours, the enthusiastic Japanese would not permit the day to pass without bestowing futher honors.

Thousands of "banzaing" Japanese crowded around the officers whenever they appeared on the streets, and Japanese and United States sailors locked arms and fraternized as though long lost and reunited brothers.

Admiral Sperry gave a reception aboard his flagship, the Connecticut, as the closing function of one of the most notable weeks in the history of Japan. It was attended by dignitaries from all ranks of Japanese life and was marked by the same spirit of friendship that has been the key note of the Americans' stay in Japan. A water carnival was given in the harbor tonight. Japanese craft of all sorts, every vessel gaily decorated and brilliantly lighted, swarmed around the great, silent sea fighters. Bands of school children wearing the American colors and singing "Columbia" and "The Star Spangled Banner" was a feature of the closing day.

The United States and Japan.

Tokio, Oct. 24.—The idea of a formal treaty between America and Japan is sweeping all before it in Japan today.

The support of Premier Katsura is evidenced by an expression in the Kokumin Shimbun, the official organ of the premier. It says that while an unwritten alliance already exists between the two countries and there is no probability of a break in the friendliness of relations, there is no objection to the understanding. The paper points out that the time for such an agreement is opportune, recalling that the Russian-French alliance came as the result of the visit of the Russian fleet to Toulon.

It could not be learned today whether any actual initiative has yet taken place, but it is conceded that the temper of the Japanese people will force the cabinet to "feel out" the American government with respect to such a proposal.

The Japanese press today prints meseges from America showing how the proposal for a Japanese-American alliance is being received in that country. The messeges are all favorable and their publication has awakened a tremendous enthusiasm for the idea. In anticipation of closer relations with the United States, the Tokio City Council tonight appropriated money for the establishment of night schools in which to teach the English language.

Robertson Victorious.

Motor Parkway, L. I., Oct. 24.—Robertson in a automobile won the Vanderbilt cup today in 4:00:48. Lyttle in an Isotta was second in 4:02:36.

Three hundred thousand persons witnessed the contest from the mammouth grand stands at the finish and banked a score deep at every one of the difficult turns which put the skill of the driver to the greatest test.

David Schue, of Brooklyn, was caught between two cars and suffered a broken leg. This was the only accident of the day.

Palmer Will Oppose Cannon.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 24.—Hon. Henry W. Palmer, twice elected republican congressman from this district and at present a candidate for re-election, has declared himself against the re-election of Speaker Cannon.

The Times-Leader (independent) called upon General Palmer to declare himself and he issued the following today:

"I shall vote against Mr. Cannon for speaker or against any other man who obstructs the Roosevelt policies as enunciated by William Howard Taft."

Threatened Revolution.

City of Mexico, Oct. 24.—Honduras is threatened with another serious revolution, according to advices reaching this city. Gen. Bonilla is at the head of the new movement and is getting his forces in shape to strike a blow. Mexico is being appealed to by the friends of the government to preserve order. The jails are full of political prisoners, but it is impossible to curb the agitation. Actual fighting is believed to be imminent.

Killed by Moros.

Manila, Oct. 24.—Nine Filipino laborers and their superintendent were killed in a fight with a band of Moros on the sugar plantation near Iligan, Island of Mindanao, news of which was received here today. The attack of the Moros was wholly unexpected, and the laborers lost heavily before they rallied and drove off the attacking party. The buildings of the plantation were fired by the Moros as they retreated slowly.

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is liquid it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain allaying Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine nor other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray is a remedy that relieves at once. All druggists, 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Morse Had Been Warned.

New York, Oct. 24.—That William B. Ridgeley, U. S. Comptroller of the Currency, had warned "Ice King" Charles W. Morse that his manipulation of the National Bank of North America would end in a crash was brought out today in the trial of Morse and Alfred W. Curtis in the U. S. Circuit Court here. Writing under date of January 24, 1907, Mr. Ridgely called attention to the fact that the examination of the bank has shown that loans to the amount of $3,535,500 had been made to companies in which the directors were interested. The comptroller insisted that such liabilities must be reduced. In answer to this Curtis wrote saying such criticisms were hardly just, and John W. Gates, a directors, also wrote saying that in his opinion the loans to Morse and his companies were entirely safe.

The Balkan Trouble.

Berlin, Oct. 24.—M. Iswolski, Russia's new foreign minister, began a conference today with Prince Von Buelow in what is believed to be a vain effort to bring Germany to the Russian-French-English viewpoint regarding the Balkan conference. It is probable that Emperor William will also join the conference. The meeting is fraught with great importance.

With respect to Turkey and Austria, Germany will support Austria in every contention, and should Iswolski urge their leaving their annexation feature to a conference the interview will end and Germany will announce her intension of not participating in the conference.

Bryan Answers Taft.

Middletown, N. Y., Oct. 24.—"I see that Mr. Taft admits last fall's panic was caused by the republican party and that he declared it was caused by over-prosperity" declared W. J. Bryan today. "All of you who feel that you deserved the panic and the suffering that ensued just because you were over prosperous will vote the republican ticket, but those of you who show that you have not had any over-supply either of prosperity or of material things, will support the democratic ticket and help me to place the country on a sound business basis."

Taft Denounces Gompers.

Richmond, Ind., Oct. 24.—Wm. H. Taft is winding up his three days' campaign in Indiana today. The first stop was made at Greenfield at 7:30 a. m. He contrasted the prosperity enjoyed by the farmers under the McKinley and Roosevelt administrations with the hard times suffered by the country under Cleveland. Taft said among others things: "I charge Mr. Gompers with misrepresenting my labor decisions in his speech and his writings. He is guilty of unblushing buncombe and demagogy."

Suffragettes Sent to Jail.

London, Oct. 24.—In the Bow street police court today, Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst and Mrs. Emily Drummond were sentenced to jail for three months and Miss Christabela Pankhurst for ten weeks. The women are leaders in the suffragette movement and were charged with inciting the riot of October 13, when an attempt was made to "rush" the House of Commons. The women were given the alternative of furnishing bonds for their good behavior or going to jail and chose the jail sentences.

Explosion in Palace.

Lisbon, Oct. 24.—An explosion occurred in the royal palace at Operao today, injuring Gen. Oibroa and three other persons. It was announced that the explosion was due to an accumulation of gas, but the rumor became current that it was the work of revolutionists and the city became greatly excited.

Prof. Osler, the author of the Osler theory went down in defeat today in his race for the Lord Rectorship of Edinburg University, the place going to George Wyndham, M. P., who was chief secretary for Ireland from 1900 to 1905. Lord Curzon of Kedleston was today elected to the Lord Rectorship of Glasgow University.

Prize fighting received its death blow in greater New York today. Police Commissioner Bingham has issued orders to all precinct commanders to see that no more six-round bouts were held.

COUNTY ITEMS.

The Town Council of Potomac meets next Monday night.

Thieves attempted to enter the residence of Mr. W. E. Kidwell last Thursday night. They were frightened away, several shots being fired at them.

The new addition to the Mount Vernon school house has been completed. The trustees of this school claim that this is the finest building of the kind in this state.

It is understood from good authority that the train known as the annex which carries workingmen to and from the Potomac yards will be discontinued in the near future.

Streets will shortly be cut through the old St. Asaph race track, thereby connecting Del Ray and St. Elmo.

The old Lloyd farm, which is composed of about sixty acres of land, has been purchased by James S. Groves the millionaire capitalist of North Carolina, and president of the Virginia Beach Development Company. The farm will be made into a beautiful sub-division which will be known as Bell Air.

Mr. Louis Steelman, assistant superintendent of the Belle Pre Bottling Works of Alexandria, has been appointed general manager of the work by Mr. Groves who will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Steelman while here.

OLD AGE

Comes to Everyone, But Its Visits May Be Postponed.

Old age is not a question of years.

Some men are old at forty, others are young at sixty.

It's a mighty hard proposition to look young, no matter how you feel, if your hair is falling out and your head becoming bald.

Perhaps you are tired trying ineffectual remedies for this evil.

We don't blame you if you are.

Why

Is it that there is an occasional howl about the poor quality of goods sold by firms? The reason is that such business houses have no future and want to "get theirs," no matter what the purchasers receive.

Our Motto

Is to recommend to you something we can guarantee and sell to you, whether you live in the city or country, exactly what we SHOW YOU.

Some One

Has said that we were not particular about the trade of Alexandria city, and we want the people here to know that such statement is absolutely false.

A Business Man

Would be an idiot to come to a city, invest money in heavy expenses, including taxes and other things, and then even intimate such a statement as this.

We Desire Your Trade

CIRCUIT COURT FOR COUNTY.

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]

The following business has been transacted during the week.

The special grand jury has returned two indictments against the W., A. and Mt. V. Ry. Co. for maintaining public nuisances—one for obstructing the public highway by an overhead bridge on Columbia turnpike in the brickyard neighborhood and the other for obstructing the public highway at Braddock Heights by causing the water to overflow the road called Washington Avenue.

The grand jury indicted Peter Magner, of Fairfax county, for cruelty to animals in cutting a horse with a pocket knife. He plead guilty and was fined $25.

The court granted Mrs. Eva Elliott an absolute divorce from Amos Elliott and awarded Mrs. Elliot the custody of the four children. Mrs. Elliott was formerly Miss Eva Marcey.

Andrew Lewis and Mr. Somers indicted for selling liquor without a license plead guilty and were fined $50. Eugene Gardner on the same charge was sent to jail for one year.

In the case yesterday of com. vs. Lawler indicted for selling liquor without a license, the jury could not agree and was adjourned. The court was not in session today.

SENT TO THE GRAND JURY.

As was stated in the Gazette, Chief Goods and Officer Ferguson yesterday afternoon arrested George Boston, a well-known negro of the city, who has already served two terms in the penitentiary, on the charge of entering and robbing the clothing story of Mr. B. Baer on the night of the 8th instant. The officers ascertained that Boston was endeavoring to sell the suit (valued at $20) for $3. Boston was brought into the Police Court this morning when three colored people—two men and a woman—testified that they had seen Boston attired in the suit. The accused in his defense denied having entered the store, and said he obtained the clothes from a colored man named William Johnson, whom he meet on Union street: Boston was sent on to the grand jury. The coat, vest and trousers were exhibited in court. The pantaloons were made for a well-known citizen, and bore his name on the inside.

THE MARKET.

The market today presented a fall appearance and showed a falling off in summer vegetables. On the benches were displayed quarters of shoat, dressed ducks and chickens, demijohns of cider, pumpkins, chestnuts, hickory nuts, pop corn, etc. Prices have considerably advanced and eggs sold at from 32 to 35 cents a dozen, butter 25 to 30 cents a pound, green corn at 15 to 25 cents a dozen, lima beans 15 a 20 cents a quart, tomatoes 6 a 10 cents per quarter peck, etc. The supply of fresh meats and fish was abundant at unchanged prices.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Edward Clark, a boy, charged with running away from his home in Fairfax county, was dismissed upon promising to return to his parents.

George Boston, colored, charged with entering a store in the night and stealing clothing therefrom, was sent on to the grand jury.

THE BYRD LAW.

A dispatch received in this city today from Winchester stated that Judge Harrison, in the Circuit Court of Frederick county, yesterday declared unconstitutional section No. 23½ of the Byrd liquor law, known as the malt beverage section. The decision was in the case of R. M. Henry, of that city, who was convicted in the Mayor's court there on the ground of selling small brew by the bottle, a product of the Portner Brewing Company of this city, which contains less than 2 per cent alcohol. Judge Harrison discharged the prisoner, holding that the section of the Byrd law under which the indictment was made was unconstitutional, as it was beyond the power of the legislature to regulate the sale of non-intoxicating beverages.

THE GAZETTE.

We have received the following from an esteemed subscriber in Cuba:

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.]

I have read with interest the editorial appearing in the "Gazette" of September 17th, relative to the membership of the democratic National Press Advisory Commission, etc., also previous ones about politics, and as you must realize, perusal of the paper in general affords me much pleasure.

Remembering the "to do" made by some of the newspapers about the president of the Virginia Bar Association coming out for Taft, I have been sending all the editorials about politics in the "Old Dominion" to the Hon. William Jennings Bryan, with whom I am, as you possibly know, personally acquainted. I had occasion to write him today, sending him some press notices etc., and made a note, tissue copy of which I enclose. While it is true that Mr. Bryan is being kept continually on the jump and undoubtedly many letters sent to Lincoln never reach his hands, I thought it might interest you to know that the loyalty, etc., of the "Gazette" has been communicated to him, even if he has not already become cognizant of the fact.

"The Alexandria Gazette is one of the oldest newspapers in the United States; is a strong partisan publication and has always been a fearless, sincere, earnest and aggressive democratic daily. It is a power in northern Virginia, being printed but seven miles from Washington, and although not considered or rather placed on the national press advisory committee, continues its good work for the democratic ticket."

AMUSEMENTS.

The Elite Picture Company gave its big show last night to standing room only. Tonight there will be an entire change of pictures. Poisoned Bouquet, an Italian tragedy of twentieth century; Buried Alive, Frolics on the beach at Coney Island; Tricked Into Giving His Consent; Great Paris Fire, most sensational fire production ever taken, actual scenes of a great fire; very thrilling. Tonight will be your last chance to hear "Chrissie Waltham" in her Irish and coon songs. If you have not heard her don't miss this chance. She will be at her best tonight. The show starts promptly at 7:15 owing to length of same. Admission to all 5 cents. Come early.

The Alexandria Amusement Company had a large crowd last night and the pictures were exceedingly interesting. Each night the attendance increases and the people are well paid for the trip. Tonight "Mysterious Flames," "Troublesome Theft," "Hunting Better Half" and "A Footlight Favorite" are the films and it is needless to pronounce them first class in advance. This house has nothing but good pictures.

The Opera House is drawing large crowds and they are well paid for the visit as the Howards in their laughable act, "The 3 o'clock Train," are the best in their class obtainable. In addition to this the singing and dancing of Miss Rose Alexander is something grand. There will be an entire change of motion pictures tonight. Come out and see them. It will do you good.

CHURCH NOTES.

The Methodist Protestant Church was well-filled last night by an attentive audience that listened with interest to an impressive sermon by the Rev. J. M. Gill, of Washington, D. C. This closed the series of preparatory services that have deepened the interest in the coming revival meeting. Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Mr. Robert L. Downing, the converted actor, will address a meeting for men. Mr. H. L. Dinwiddie, will be the soloist. Mr. Downing will open the two weeks revival services, every night, excepting Saturday, at 7:30. Everybody invited. At the 11 a. m. service, the pastor, Rev. G. I. Humphreys, will speak on "Lessons in Spiritual Character."

FUNERAL.

The remains of William K. Miller were interred in Bethel cemetery at this city this morning. The body arrived last night from Utica, N. Y. Mrs. Grace Miller, widow of Mr. Miller, was not able to attend the funeral. The services in this city consisted only of the committal of the body to the ground. Rev. J. R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, officiated. Masonic tribute was paid by members of National Lodge, No. 12, F. A. A. M., of Washington. Members of that lodge served as pallbearers. Mrs. Miller is a soloist and under contract with Victor Venetian, the Italian band leader. She left Washington yesterday to rejoin the company. Mrs. Miller was Miss Grace Arnell, of this city.

REMAINS IDENTIFIED.

According to a telegram signed J. O'Toole, received at the Alexandria Hospital today, the remains of the man who died a few days ago in that institution from injuries received at the Potomac railroad yards are those of a man named William O'Toole, who formally lived on east Eighty-ninth street, New York. The man gave his name as William Quinn, and refused to impart any information concerning himself. The body had been embalmed and is still at Demaine & Son's undertaking establishment awaiting the arrival of relatives of the dead man.

This evening Mrs. Adamson, matron of the hospital, received a telegram from John O'Toole, of New York, asking her to hold the body of his son and that he would be here tonight for it.

RUNAWAY BOY.

Officer Beach last night arrested a boy named Edward Clark, whose parents reside in the neighborhood of New Alexandria. The youth, it appeared, had run away from home and was eking out a precarious existence in this city, sleeping in outhouses and subsisting on chickens which he killed, cooked and ate. It was thought that he could tell the names of the parties who stole copper wire from the power house at New Alexandria, but the police failed to obtain any information from him. The boy was brought into the Police Court this morning when he acknowledged that he stole chickens and ate them. He was dismissed with the understanding that if caught in Alexandria an hour later he would be sent to the reform school.

THE SEASON OPENED.

It is a pleasure to say a few words in behalf of those who believe that advertising pays. The Opera House Cafe, with its congenial and up-to-date proprietor, Mr. Louis Brill, announces to the citizens today the opening of his steamed oyster bar. It can be said with safety that this cafe can furnish as fine a steam as can be secured anywhere and for less money. In fact there is no style in which the bivalve can be served that the proprietor is not wise to. Up-to-date steamer and polite and quick service adds to the popularity of this house. Drop in on your way home and try one or carry to your wife or mother a few of his celebrated single fried. He serves nothing but selects.

TO GET OUT THE VOTE.

The committee of twelve selected to get out the vote in the Second ward met at the office of Attorney R. D. Brumback last night and elected Mr. Thomas A. Fisher chairman and Mr. Robinson Moncure secretary. The poll book was gone over and each member given his quota of names and instructed to report on them at a meeting to be held next Friday night. The secretary was instructed to communicate with voters who are temporarily residing in other cities requesting them to come home and vote on election day. It is understood that the committees appointed for the other wards will meet at an early date and take similar action.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Baptist General Association of Virginia, which is to meet with the First Baptist Church in Richmond, on Friday November 13th, at 7:30 p. m., and which is to continue until Tuesday, November 17th, promises to be in some notable features the most important session of the body ever held in its long and useful history. Rev. W. F. Watson of this city will address the convention on Sunday night, November 15th, on the subject of Sunday school work.

Tomorrow Rev. Mr. Watson will have for his subjects, morning: "The Kind of Religion Needed." Evening: "A Young Man's Question; A Young Man's Peril."

DROWNED.

William T. Belt, son of the fire chief of Washington, was drowned in the Potamac Thursday night, having fallen overboard from the yacht Dakota, of which he was the sailing master. The circumstances in connection with the drowning are a mystery. When the other members of the crew awoke yesterday morning Belt was missing, while his coat and other apparel were found aboard the boat. The police of the harbor precinct of Washington later recovered the body.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supple energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. Remarkable Story

The story of Mrs. Matilda Warwick, of Kokomo, Ind., as told below, proves the curative properties of that well-known female remedy, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. Warwick says:

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

"I suffered from pains in my head, shoulders, limbs, side, stomach low down, dizziness, chills, nervousness, fainting spells and other female troubles. I was almost dead. Three doctors did not help me. At last, I took Cardui, and with the first bottle obtained relief. Now I am cured. But for Cardui, I would have been dead." Try Cardui.

BRIDEGROOM KILLED.

On her bridal trip, which had begun scarcely an hour before, and seated in a railroad coach almost between her husband and a former suitor for her hand, Mrs. Fred Van Ingen of Baton Rouge La., on Thursday night saw the flash of the suitor's revolver, felt the grip of her husband's hand as the bullet killed him and then fought for her life.

The former suitor is F. S. Beauvre, of Plaquemine, La., at which place he was taken from the train and placed under arrest. The unfortunate husband was Prof. Fred Van Ingen, a prominent teacher of Alexandria, La. The bride is a daughter of James M. Rhorer, one of the leading officials of Iberville parish, residing at Baton Rouge. Beauvre is 24 years old and Van Ingen was 23.

The wedding took place Thursday at Alexandria. Beauvre was in town, having arrived there on the same day as Miss Rhorer. When the bridal couple left for New Orleans he boarded the train and after a time sat in a seat where he was facing Mr. and Mrs. Van Ingen, with the bride between him and her husband. Other passengers say Beauvre talked with the bridal couple just before the shooting and say that his manner appeared cordial.

Beauvre is alleged to have leaned across and said: "Congratulations to you both."

The bride thanked him and added, "We are very happy," at the same time turning to her husband to caress him.

"This is too much." Beauvre is alleged to have exclaimed and, drawing a revolver, fired at Van Ingen, the first shot killing the bridegroom almost instantly. As the husband sank into his wife's arms, Beauvre, with arm still outstretched, started to pull the trigger again, but a white-haired man, uncle of the bride, leaped forward and thrust his thumb between the hammer and cartridge so that the cartridge did not explode. Other passengers then caught Beauvre and disarmed him.

QUESTION OF IDENTITY.

Declaring himself to be George A. Kimmel, fugitive cashier of the Farmers' State Bank of Arkansas City, Kas., and supported in this contention by the New York Life Insurance Company which had insured Kimmel, Andrew J. White, a convict in Auburn prison, N. Y., is repudiated by Kimmel's sister and beneficiary, and a federal commission has been appointed to solve the mystery of his identity. The life insurance company supports White's declaration that he is the missing Kimmel because in the event the latter's $25,000 policy need not be paid. Mrs. Edna K. Bonsett of Chicago, declares her brother is dead. There is said to be a strong resemblance between Mrs. Bonsett and White. Kimmel is charged with robbing the Farmers' State Bank of Arkansas City in 1898, since which time he has been sought by the police of the entire country.

EXECUTIONS IN RUSSIA.

The St. Petersburg Rech has obtained and made public the official statistics of the executions in Russia during the year 1907 on sentences imposed by the military district courts. The total is 627, of which 84 were soldiers and 543 civilians. These figures are considerably below the earlier unofficial estimates, which were based on the condemnations reported in press dispatchs. According to the official classifications, 453 persons, or over 70 per cent., were hanged or shot for murder or robbery accompanied by violence; 62 men were executed for mutiny or other offenses against military discipline; 51 for crimes against the state, and 4 for desertion. The balance is not specified. The Baltic provinces took the lead in the number of executions, with 134 This was due to the final stamping out of the insurrection.

NEGROES HANGED.

Yesterday was hangman day in Louisiana, five persons, all negroes, being hanged, the greatest number in any one day for many years. All the hangings were for murder. The first double hanging to take place in Louisiana in twenty-three years occurred in New Orleans yesterday, when two negroes, Edward Honore and Jacques Pierre, high priest and Prophet Ezekiel, respectively, of the "Council of God," dropped together through the same gallows trap in the yard of the parish prison. The negroes were convicted of the murder of Patrolman Robert Cambias on October 19, 1907, during a pitched battle between the officers, led by Martin Behrman, mayor of New Orleans, in person, and a band of forty fanatical blacks styling themselves the "Council of God."

Some Famous Sallies.

Great men have been guilty of punning, and some of the most famous of these sallies have come down in history. There is something melancholy about the pun of Dr. Thomas Browne, who, having unsuccessfully courted a lady and being challenged to drink to her health, as had been his wont, replied, "I have toasted her many years, but I cannot make her Browne, so I will toast her no longer."

Sydney Smith's jest at the expense of Mrs. Grote had the salt of malice in it. She was famed for ill taste in dress, and as one day she swept by in an extraordinary headdress Smith pointed her out to a friend, saying, "That is the origin of the word 'grotesque.'"

Mrs. Grote, however, had her revenge. Sydney Smith's daughter married a Dr. Holland. When the latter was knighted some one mentioned his wife as Lady Holland. "Do you mean Lord Holland's wife?" asked the listener.

"No," replied Mrs. Grote. "This new Holland, whose capital is Sydney."

When the barrister Campbell married Miss Scarlett his friend explained his absence from court by telling the judge that Campbell was suffering from a bad attack of Scarlett fever.

Ancient Chains.

"Some authorities," says an English writer, "give the Britons credit for originating the cable chain because Julius Caesar is recorded as having been unable to cut the cables of the Gaul's vessels, 'as they were made of iron.' This may have been a chain in the present acceptation of the term, but it is doubtful, because the first patent for chainmaking was obtained in England in 1634 by a blacksmith named Philip White. The patent was for fourteen years, and in consideration of it White had to pay £5 in lawful money yearly 'at the exchequer, Westminster, att the Feast of the Blessed Virgyn and Saint Michell the Archangell by even and eual process.'

"His patent is described as follows: 'A way for the wearing of shipps with iron chaynes by finding out the true heating (pre)pareing and tempering of Iyron for that (pur)pose and that he hath nowe attayned to the true vse of the said chaynes and that the same wilbe for the great saveing of cordage and safety of shippers and will redound to good of our Comon Wealth.'"

Bread That Intoxicates.

In far eastern Russia, in that region which lies between the sea and the river called Mssuri, the humidity of the climate as well as of the soil is remarkable. Vegetation is here distinguished for its wondrous exuberance, to such an extent that the soil never dries up. The result is that the inhabitants in order to prevent putrefaction of the roots sow their corn upon a series of layers of the soil. Nevertheless in certain districts the humidity is so intense that there grows upon the ears of corn a kind of fungous matter made up of micro fungi. As a result of this sporadic excrescence the bread made from the corn in question gives all the results of an overdose of alcohol. In very humid climates the phenomenon is likewise known, though to nothing like the extent of eastern Siberia, where whole districts are affected by this strange kind of "alcoholized bread."

Shakespeare's Name.

It has often been a puzzle to students of Shakespeare why his name is spelled in so many different ways. Shakespeare himself is said to have signed his name on different occasions "Shakspeare" and "Shakespere," and learned disquisitions have been written to prove which is the proper spelling. None perhaps was more amusing than the "weather" reason given in 1851 by Albert Smith, who averred that he had found it in the Harleian manuscript. It was as follows:

How dyd Shakspeare spell hys name?
Ye weatherre mayde ye change, we saye,
So write it as ye please;
When ye sonne shone he mayde hys A;
When wette he took hys E'es.

QUAKER WHEAT BERRIES for sale at 7c package; fresh goods, by J. C. MILBURN

Installments All Around.

Patient (gloomily)—I don't seem to be gaining very fast, doctor.

Doctor (cheerfully)—You can't expect to get well at one jump. You will have to regain your health gradually day by day—sort of on the installment plan, as it were.

Patient (brightening up)—Well, doctor, if this thing keeps on much longer I'm afraid that you will have to collect your bill in the same way.—Judge's Library.

Why They Objected.

"No," said the fireman, who represented the truck company that had refused to work with a colored truckman, "there is no race prejudice in it. But we certainly hate to work with a man whose face will look just as clean on the way home from a long fire fight as it did when we started, while we other chaps all look smudgy."—Judge's Library.

Not a New Species.

"Now, what shall we name the baby?" inquired the professor's wife.

"Why, this species has been named," answered the professor in astonishment. "This is a primate mammal, homo sapiens."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Unsolved Problems.

The three great problems on the solution of which humanity is bent are the same that perplexed our ancestors—the immortality of the soul, perpetual motion and women's hats.—Paris Figaro.

The Real Work.

Client—How is my case coming on? Surely you've had time to look up the law? Attorney—Oh, that was easy. I've been putting in my time studying the technicalities.—San Francisco Call.
